

Fastest Corvette ZR1 in the World? [Video]

13/12/2011 13:45 by admin

The Corvette ZR-1 is not only a fierce supercar, but also an extremely good starting point for a tuning project. Thus, there are many aftermarket developments that try to bring us the fastest ZR-1 in the world.

The adjacent video brings us a heavily tech modified ZR1 ‘Vette coming from Late Model Racecraft, which claims to be the fastest in the world, in terms of quarter mile drag racing.

The clip, which comes from High Tech Corvette, who's also responsible for those clips of sexy Gi...[...]
