

Audi A1 MTM Top Speed Video

29/12/2011 21:28 by admin

Audi has an obsession for topping the performance segments its range targets in terms of power. This is also true for the little A1 - its latest version, the 256 hp A1 Quattro is the most powerful in its league. However, this still isn't enough for certain tuners, who like to take things to the extreme.

The perfect example for this comes in the form of the adjacent video, which shows what MTM can do for an Audi A1. Here, we have the Audi A1 Nardo Edition, a tuning development that has been cr...[...]
