

Fox Marketing Nissan Juke-S Previewed

05/01/2012 20:07 by admin

Nissan UK's idea of offering the Juke a GT-R heart transplant is now giving birth to an aftermarket project that aims to bring us another hot incarnation of the crossover. US tuner Fox Marketing, which is well known for its extreme projects, has decided to target the Juke and is now previewing the development of the Juke-S project.

The Juke 1.6-liter turbo all-wheel-drive was used as a starting point, with goodies such as a massive turbo & intercooler setup being use. The vehicle will offer a... [...]
