

BMW M3 with Akrapovic Exhaust Hooning Video

16/01/2012 18:39 by admin

The BMW M3 is already a beast when it leaves the factory and adding tuning goodies to it can only make things worse, which is great. Just to make sure that everybody gets our message, we're giving you the adjacent video, which shows an M3 with certain track-focused modifications, one of which is an Akrapovic exhaust system.

The German coupe has been fitted with an Akrapovic Evolution exhaust system, which is made of titanium, adding 22 hp and 35 Nm (26 lb-ft) of torque, while reducing weight ... [...]
