The Ferrari 458 Italia has recently been targeted by British tuner Kahn, which is now offering us the result of its interaction with the Italian supercar. Kahn gifted the 458 with a set of exterior mods, including a matt pearl grey finish to the roof, matt pearl grey side skirts, matt pearl grey front and rear bumper sections, matt pearl grey rear diffuser, red brake callipers (featured on the white 458), and yellow brake callipers (found on the red 458).
