RENNtech is the basically as dedicated as you can get to creating custom Mercedes that go really fast, though they sometimes play with BMWs or Porsches as well. And while they do make anything from adaptive suspension to a full exhaust for the Mercedes Benz SLR McLaren, there isn't an invisible trunk option on the market as far as we know.

Before you burn us for getting it wrong, this video does not show an actual record-setting run, only the car that hold the title. But with a quarter mile r... [...]
