

Porsche Panamera Wald International Black Bison

19/01/2012 20:43 by admin

Japanese tuning company Wald International has applied its Black Bison treatment to a new vehicle, with the target now being the Porsche Panamera. Are you ready for a questionable styling adventure? OK, let's go...

The four-door coupe received a carbon fiber aerodynamic package consisting of a new front fascia with massive air intakes, front fender air vents, beefier rear wheel arches, a boot lid spoiler, as well as a rear diffuser.

In addition to that, the Panamera was fitted with a set ... [...]
