

Chrome Ferrari 458 Challenge Spotted Racing

23/01/2012 12:47 by admin

Last year, we showed you a Ferrari 458 chrome wrap job, with the development only turning a part of the supercar into a mirror. Now we're back to finish the job and give you a full chrome wrap for the Italian temptress.

This time, the starting point was the racing version of the car, the 458 Challenge. This means that the all-shiny vehicle brings the sun to the racetrack! The car was caught on camera while being put through its paces during the Cavallino Classic track days that took place on ... [...]

Source: autoevolution