

Venchurs Vehicle Systems Launches Xplore Trucks

23/01/2012 15:49 by admin

Venchurs Vehicle Systems, a company that likes to turn SUVs and off-roaders into perfect rides for explorers is now targeting the pickup truck segment, choosing the Ram as the first brand to receive its Xplore treatment.

The company said that the Chevrolet Silverado and the Ford F-Series will follow soon. For now, customers can choose between four stages of customisation, depending on their expedition needs. Stage 1 brings a Katzkin leather interior, with options including Mopar parts and acc... [...]
