

Lamborghini Aventador, Ferrari 458 and Range Rover Evoque Get Prindiville Tuning Kits

25/01/2012 13:26 by admin

London-based bespoke coachbuilder, Prindiville has recently relaunched, with the company developing a set of visual and technical modification packages for some of the hottest car on the market: Lamborghini Aventador, Ferrari 458 and Range Rover Evoque.

The tech side of the story brings titanium high performance exhaust systems for each of these cars, which not only bring extra power, but are 80 percent lighter than the stock ones. In addition to that, the tuner offers high-flow induction ki... [...]
