

2012 Porsche 911 (991) Brombacher Exhaust [Video]

27/01/2012 19:48 by admin

The Porsche 911 is probably the most tuned cars in the world, so it's only natural that the new 991 generation is being offered more and more aftermarket developments and we're here to talk about the latest one.

German exhaust specialist Brombacher has created an exhaust system for both versions of the 911 (only the Carrera and the Carrera S have been launched so far), with the company recently releasing a video to showcase the goodies.

The stainless steel exhaust comes with 200 cell HD ca... [...]
