

Lamborghini Aventador by Prindiville Design [Video]

27/01/2012 21:48 by admin

A few days ago, British aftermarket company Prindiville Design was relaunched, with the developer aiming high by offering complex development packages for the Lamborghini Aventador, Ferrari 458 and Range Rover Evoque.

We're now back on the subject and we want to give you a video of the tuned Aventador. We'll remind you that the tuning package includes both tech and visual goodies, with the tuner insisting on cutting weight by making extensive use of carbon fiber (for the body) and titanium [...]
