

2012 Fiat 500 Stinger Comes from Mopar

31/01/2012 19:38 by admin

Mopar is releasing four special vehicles to celebrate its 75th anniversary and for this piece of news we'll focus on the tiniest customized ride of the club, the 2012 Fiat 500 Stinger.

The vehicle's 1.4-liter MultiAir engine has been gifted with a cold-air intake and a cat-back exhaust (Mopar hasn't released the power increase), a more potent braking system, as well as a set of 17-inch Abarth Hyper Black lightweight rims that use 205/40 tires.

The vehicle has been dressed in Giallo (Italia... [...])
