Kahn's Range Rover fantasy has taken yet another form: the Imperial Blue Cosworth Edition, a development that aims to give a new identity to the British SUV.

The Range Rover was fitted with exterior goodies such as wide vented front and rear wheel arches with integrated LED running lights in the front air dams, brake calipers finished in liquid gold, RS front grille with 3D mesh, as well as exhaust side vents, matt pearl grey or matt black paint detailing for the door handles, custom side si...
