

Porsche Cayenne 955 Gets Prior Design Tuning Kit

14/02/2012 13:28 by admin

The Porsche Cayenne is one of the favorite children of the tuning world, which means that even now, when the second generation of the car has already been on the market for a while, tuners take the time to release goodies for the first incarnation of the German SUV.

We are referring to Prior Design, which has developed an exterior package for the 955 Porsche Cayenne - the one that started it all. The vehicle gets a new front fascia, which comes with massive air intakes, as well as LED daytime...ш..щ
