

Alfa Romeo 8C Competizione Gets Forgiato Wheels

23/02/2012 14:17 by admin

The Alfa Romeo 8C Competizione might not be the fastest supercar out there, but it's sure one of the most appealing, which is why it can serve as a perfect vehicle to fit with a set of impressive-looking aftermarket rims.

This is exactly what Forgiato Wheels did, gifting the 8C with some of their creations and releasing a few shots that will definitely keep you in front of your screen for a while.

The coupe was gifted with a set of 22-inch Maglia rims, which come with a finish that mixes r... [...]
