

Techart 2012 Porsche 911 Revealed

27/02/2012 17:50 by admin

The Porsche 911 is probably the most tuned car in the world, so it's only natural that the new 991 generation of the rear-engined vehicle follows the tracks of its predecessors. Today, we are presenting you Techart's vision of the 911, with the tuner introducing an interior and exterior package for the Carrera and Carrera S.

It all starts with an exterior package consisting of a two-piece front fascia, new side skirts, a rear wing that somehow reminds us the GT2, a rear diffuser, headlight cov... [...]
