

Kahn Ford Focus RS and Fiesta ST with Cosworth Wheels Released

01/03/2012 14:15 by admin

The Ford Focus RS and the Fiesta ST have come together in a two-generation story in a tuning story that was recently written by British aftermarket developer Kahn, which has gifted both cars with exterior and interior tuning goodies.

The aforementioned goodies are all part of a scheme to offer the vehicles a stock appearance, which means that they might look sporty, but they don't come with too much flashiness.

Both the Focus RS and the Fiesta ST were gifted with body kits, with the latter...[...]
