

Mansory McLaren MP4-12C Revealed

01/03/2012 14:15 by admin

Mansory has given the already exclusive McLaren MP4-12C supercar into an even more exclusive car by giving it a racing makeover and of course the obligatory power boost. The car will of course bow at the upcoming Geneva Motor Show, where you will be able to decide for yourself if this is the millionaire's plaything for you.

Thanks to a new performance exhaust, new air intake system and an engine remap, the 3.8-liter twin-turbo unit makes 670 PS 675 Nm (498 lb-ft) of torque. As a result of thi... [...]
