

Startech Range Rover Evoque Cabrio

05/03/2012 11:48 by admin

If you thought that the open-top version of the Range Rover Evoque is a crazy project, wait until you see what Startech has prepared for the Geneva Motor Show. The German tuner is ready to introduce its own version of the convertible SUV, with the vehicle receiving a long list of modifications.

The Startech Evoque Convertible will make its debut at the same time with the stock version of the car, so we'll be able to make a direct comparison. The conversion has been carried out independently, ... [...]
