

Porsche 911 GT3 RS 4.0 SP 525 by Sportec

06/03/2012 02:52 by admin

Sportec's involvement at the 2012 Geneva Motor Show involves the introduction of a couple of Porsche programs, one of which is for the limited edition 911 (997) GT3 RS 4.0. We all know that Porsche is only making 600 of these bad boys so if any of the owners have dreams of having a program done on their baby, then Sportec has all your needs spoken for. The program, which is called the 'SP 525', comes with aerodynamic components such as a new carbon fiber bonnet that cuts down on the car's overall weight. In addition, Sportec also added windscreen viewing bars, an Sportec optical package, an optional video box, and a new set of 20" large Mono/7 wheels with central locking, wrapped in Michelin PS2 Cup tires.[...]

Source: topspeed