

Mansory Lamborghini Aventador in Geneva [Video]

07/03/2012 20:02 by admin

Do you know what orange chrome and carbon fiber will do to a car? Mansory does, because they did it to the Lamborghini Aventador. What it does is light the car on fire!

The German luxury tuner has come forth with a whole bunch of tuned supercars to the 2012 Geneva Motor Show, and thanks to supercar Youtube Alex Molik, we can show you what the Mansory Aventador looks like. Does it have too much carbon and is there too much to look at? Yes, but if overdone sometimes translates into sweet perfection... [...]
