

Range Rover Harris Tweed Edition by Kahn

09/03/2012 14:49 by admin

Kahn has a passion for taking car interiors and playing with them to the point where they are almost unrecognizable, with one of the most important ingredients in this recipe being the special materials it uses. Now, the British aftermarket developer has released the Range Rover Harris Tweed edition, thus bringing the Champagne of fabrics, as the material is called, inside the cabin of the SUV.

We'll start our story outside the car, where we find a black pearl finish, an aerodynamic package i... [...]
