

Senner Tunes Audi S5 Facelift

15/03/2012 10:33 by admin

With the help of Senner Tuning, the Audi S5 facelift, which has just recently begun its market rollout, now looks like a combination between a car with street cred' and the luxury of the A8 W12 (we mean cosmetically).

The S5 Coupe has been criticized for losing the V8 it has stuck with since the beginning of time. Senner didn't give it a new V8, but the German tuning company did come forth with a power upgrade for the supercharged V6.

The 3.0-liter TFSI engine now makes 377 PS and 500 Nm [...]
