

2013 Audi A3 Tuning: ABT AS3

16/03/2012 14:44 by admin

The new Audi A3 made its debut at the Geneva Auto Show and aftermarket developers are now starting to introduce goodies for the compact. We are here to show you what German tuner ABT has to offer to the fresh A3.

ABT is known for developing complete kits that also target the tech side and come with gentle visual mods and this pack, which uses the AS3 designation, is no exception. The vehicle received a front bumper with a lip, a revised front grille, new side skirts, as well as a fresh rear f... [...]
