There are few things better than a luscious super car, but any guy will tell you that, on that short list, there's a hot girl next to a super car. Forgiato Wheels knows this and while their tuning package for the Lamborghini Aventador isn't really anything to write home about, a beautiful girl in a white, see-through blouse makes all the difference. The only modifications Forgiato Wheels added was, well, wheels. The new wheels are called Artigli-ECL and were inspired by the sharp lines and aggressive look of the Lamborghini Aventador. They measure 20x9 with a 2" lip up front and 21x13.5 with a 4.5" lip at the rear, and are wrapped in Pirelli tires, size 255/30/20 and 355/25/21 rear. Their white paint finish fits perfectly with the exterior of the super car and with the model's white top.[...]
