

Lamborghini Aventador Gets PUR Wheels via Virtual Tuning

22/03/2012 17:32 by admin

PUR Wheels, the aftermarket developer that recently placed its Rose Gold wheels on a Lamborghini Murcielago, now wants to gift the Aventador with a set of rims. The company has made a few proposals using virtual tuning and is inviting you to choose your favorite design and vote on its Facebook page.

The V12-powered Italian supercar has been gifted with the following wheel models: the minimalist 1NE, the racing-inspired 2WO, the elegant 3HREE and the slim 4OUR. With all of them using dark colo... [...]
