The Mercedes CL is on its way to its retirement, as the vehicle will be replaced with an S-Class Coupe after the new generation of the flagship model debuts. However, the CL still gathers a lot of attention, especially from the aftermarket work and this is why we are here: to give you another CL custom project, which comes from California exhaust specialist Royal Muffler.

This example of the luxurious coupe rides on a set of ADV.10, three-piece Deep-Concave alloy wheels, which come in a size ... [...]
