

Mansory Lamborghini Aventador New Details

29/03/2012 14:41 by admin

Mansory is a tuner on the way up, as they've recently signed a deal with Lotus to become customizes for all their unique projects. This is definitely a good thing, as the tuners have steadily imposed their carbon fiber mentality onto the supercar world.

If you don't believe us, just look at what they did to the Lamborghini flagship model, the Aventador. If there was ever a cool way to combine the color of fire and carbon fiber, than this is it.

Because we're power hungry, we'll mention tha... [...]
