

Opel Corsa Tuned by Rieger

29/03/2012 15:41 by admin

The Opel Corsa is starting to show its age, despite the fact that the carmaker has introduced a facelift for the vehicle, so what can you do if you want your Corsa to look a little bit more special? The answer comes from the aftermarket world, which offers plenty of goodies.

The latest tuning kit for the Corsa comes from Rieger, which has recently launched an exterior package for the sub-compact. The vehicle has been gifted with a front bumper that uses bold side elements, side skirt add-on... [...]
