Wheelandmore is on a Mercedes tuning spree. After managing to be the first to spruce up the R231 SL-Class, they've now unveiled a package for another very desirable two-door Merc'. Yes, the C 63 AMG has been bestowed with a new set of custom wheels and a snazzy makeover, not to mention a significant power boost.

But we're most impressed by the new 20-inch forged wheels, finished in black with a polished lip and wrapped in Dunlop GT Sportmaxx tires sized 235/30 front and the rear size 275/25. ... [...]
