

Terra 650: Extreme Porsche Cayenne by DMC

18/04/2012 12:17 by admin

We're used to seeing conversion kits for supercars that cost tens or even over a hundred thousand euros from German tuner DMC. However, for their latest project they targeted Porsche's most popular vehicle, the Cayenne SUV. Thankfully, the tuner has not tried to make the Cayenne into a sports couple like some try... and fail to do. Instead, they offer a carbon-fiber enriched styling kit that they say can be fitted in as... [...]
