

Kahn Presents Jeep Wrangler Seats

18/04/2012 15:17 by admin

British aftermarket developer Kahn has played with the Jeep Wrangler before and now the company is back with a new development for the iconic off-roader, targeting the interior of the car. The Wrangler has received a pair of Kahn sport seats, with the tuning company offering these in a large variety of materials and colors. The seats come with a reclining mechanism and can be used with the original seat belts, so the vehicle doesn&rsq... [...]
