

Peugeot 205 GTI Gets Modern Tuning Conversion

19/04/2012 18:57 by admin

The Peugeot 205 GTI, a vehicle that was produced between 1984 and 1993, has entered the history books as one of the hottest hot hatches of all times and there are enough examples of the vehicle still being hooned, both on the road and on the track, today. However, its 8-valve 1,905 cc unit only delivers 135 hp, a value that doesn't allow it to keep up with contemporary go-fast vehicle and the same can be said about its braking a... [...]
