

ABT VW Beetle Gets 240 HP

26/04/2012 17:57 by admin

It's no secret that German tuners ABT Sportsline have customized the new Volkswagen Beetle, as they've already shown a custom exterior shell at the Geneva Motor Show, together with a bunch of other Audis and VWs. But today we get to find out what's under that skirt... sorry, bonnet. The most powerful engine available to the 21st century Bug is of course a 2.0-liter turbo. But this hasn't got enough ... [...]
