

Prindiville Imagines Tuning the One-Off Lamborghini Aventador J Speedster

02/05/2012 15:33 by admin

We would like to believe that the last thing going through the mind of the person who has or will acquire the one-off, ?2.1 million Aventador J are 24 inch rims and carbon fiber spoilers, but for the sake of conversation and some crafty marketing to reach the masses, UK design house Prindiville has released a theoretical tune for Sant'Agata's speedster. Prindiville's imaginary (i.e. photoshop) creation builds on the limited production design and performance package it offers for the Lamborghini Aventador LP700-4 coupé, of which only eight examples will be produced.[...]
