In the automotive world, finding the right mix of ingredients for making a cocktail that can really quench your thirst is not easy. Let's say that, for example, two of the parking spaces in your heart are reserved for pickup trucks and the BMW Isetta, respectively. Will you ever have the chance to drink something that includes both? Well, it seems that if your brain of fate were good enough for you to raise $35,000 for this pur... [...]
