Despite them usually choosing to do up Audis, this time it's the turn of the funky Nissan Juke to get the Senner treatment. They have created the Tzunamee Juke thanks to candy-red paint and matching 20-inch alloys while also slightly increasing its power output. When it comes to power, the Juke's turbocharged 1.6-liter petrol motor develops 190hp and 240 Nm (177 lb-ft) of torque in standard trim. Senner has given it a ... [...]
