Wheelsandmore have taken the mightiest of all the Raging Bulls to the max with a new tuning package called the Lamborghini Aventador Chocolate LP777-4 after the new output of the car and the cool chocolate brown color they came up with. The Aventador engine tuning package includes two stages of tune, one of which adds only 30 hp, the other coming with a new ECU map and high performance air box and steel exhaust system to get you that extra 77 hp that makes the name o...
