German tuner Piecha Design is celebrating 30 years of existence and to celebrate they've chosen the new Mercedes Benz E-Class Coupe and Cabrio as a base car for their project. The most fascinating part of the car is now not the folding roof, but the long rear diffuser and the custom quad exhaust system. The lip of the trunk has also been bestowed with a 3-Piece spoiler in a design that we haven't seen in a long time. I... [...]
