600 hp on a car with roof racks? Now that's what we call cool! What is the source of this coolness, you ask? German tuner Edo Competition, which has recently released a new power upgrade for the Mercedes C63 AMG estate. The naturally-aspirated 6.2-liter V8 has been gifted with sports air filters, a high performance exhaust with high-slow catalytic converters, as well as a new ECU map. The unit has been boosted from its factory o... [...]
