We met the Mansory 458 Spider Monaco back in April, when the vehicle made its debut at the Top Marques Monaco 2012 and now the German tuner is releasing the full details of the project. Only 3 units of the vehicle will be released, with the tuning program covering all the areas of the car, including the tech side, the exterior and the interior. The V8 powerplant has received a new air filter, a custom exhaust and an ECU remap, with the re... [...]
