So you think that the 987hp (1,001PS) Bugatti Veyron 16.4 and its 1,184hp (1,200PS) Super Sports and Grand Sport Vitesse siblings are extreme? Well, while that may hold true in the production car realm, in the creative and unrestricted tuning world, 1,000 horses are nothing to brag about. If you have any doubts, just ask the crew over at Steve Morris Engines who have built the real Godzilla of cars in the shape of an early 1970s Ford Mustang Mach 1.[...]
