

BMW X6 and X6 M Get Schmidt Revolution Rhino Wheels

18/05/2012 16:33 by admin

The BMW X6, together with the X6 M SAV monster, are an extremely popular choice for those in the market for a crossover and thus they've also become one of the favorite cars for tuners. The latest aftermarket developer that has released a goodie destined for the X6 is Wheel specialist Schmidt Revolution, which gifted the SAVs with a new model of rims that use the Rhino designation. The wheels come in ... [...]
