

Inspire Tuning W219 Mercedes CLS Black Bison by Wald

22/05/2012 18:46 by admin

Few people know that Wald International, the makers of those insane Black Bison widebody kits for the coolest of Mercedes's models are actually from Japan. And today we learn a bit of extra information about the company, as a body kit from the Indonesian division called Inspire Tuning has been released. This targets the Mercedes Benz CLS, not the new one, but the old W219 four-door coupe that started the craze back when it was la... [...]
