

K-Tec Boosts for Clio Sport RS to 215 HP

22/05/2012 19:46 by admin

Most people agree that the regular Renaultsport Clio 200 is a potent little rocket, a fact we can verify after getting up-close and personal with the Gordini recently. But more power never hurt anybody! A new, dyno-developed upgrade program for the famous 2.0-liter naturally aspirated VVT engine has been announced by K-Tec Racing, a specialist in ...
