

Gemballa Presents Diamond Finish

25/05/2012 14:36 by admin

Tuners are always looking to come up with finishes that are as flashy as possible and Gemballa has recently introduced one that tops everything we've seen, as it uses diamonds. The company claims that this is suitable for both "ladies and gentlemen of sophistication," so let's see what it's all about. The German tuner announced that it can coat both exterior and interiors using its new diamond finish,... [...]
