

Ferrari 458 Italia Rides on Forgestar CF5 Concave Wheels

25/05/2012 16:36 by admin

The Ferrari 458 is a predator has no mercy whatsoever. The only commands it listens to are those of its master and if the one behind the wheel wants it to attack another car on the road and eat it alive, the V8 monster will oblige. Of course, certain owners like to reward their 458s for being so obedient and thus gift them with various tuning goodies. We are here to talk about such an example: a unit of the car that has been gifted with a... [...]

Source: autoevolution