This has to be one of our favorite sets of wheels out there! Sure, it's not a three piece insanity with 50 bolts, but the VVS-CV3 concave wheel from Vossen looks excellent in combination with the king of pony cars, the GT500 Mustang, powered by a supercharged 5.4-liter V8 with more power than you can shake a tire at. It's nice to see that the owner of this 'Stang didn't want to mess with the lines o... [...]
