

Mercedes C63 AMG Dressed in Matte Black via Satin Guard Wrap

30/05/2012 14:57 by admin

The C63 AMG you see in the adjacent images might have left behind its factory glossy black finish for a matte one using a wrap, but this didn't happen in the way you'd imagine. Thus, the car was not wrapped in matte black, but was gifted with a clear coat that offers it this look. Premier Protective Films gifted the car with a Satin Guard protective film, which is 8 mm thick. The vehicle also received a Diamond Cut IT ... [...]
